SPEED LIMITS

(Subject to change by the Legislature)

Pleasure cars 50 miles; all other motor vehicles 45 miles an hour, except that some communities have local speed limits.

Vermont laws require that motor vehicles shall not be operated in a careless or negligent manner; that not more than three people over 2 years of age may ride on the front seat of passenger cars. Drivers are requested to practice road courtesy and operate vehicles so as not to endanger the safety, life or property of any person.
