

HAMMOND BRIDGE

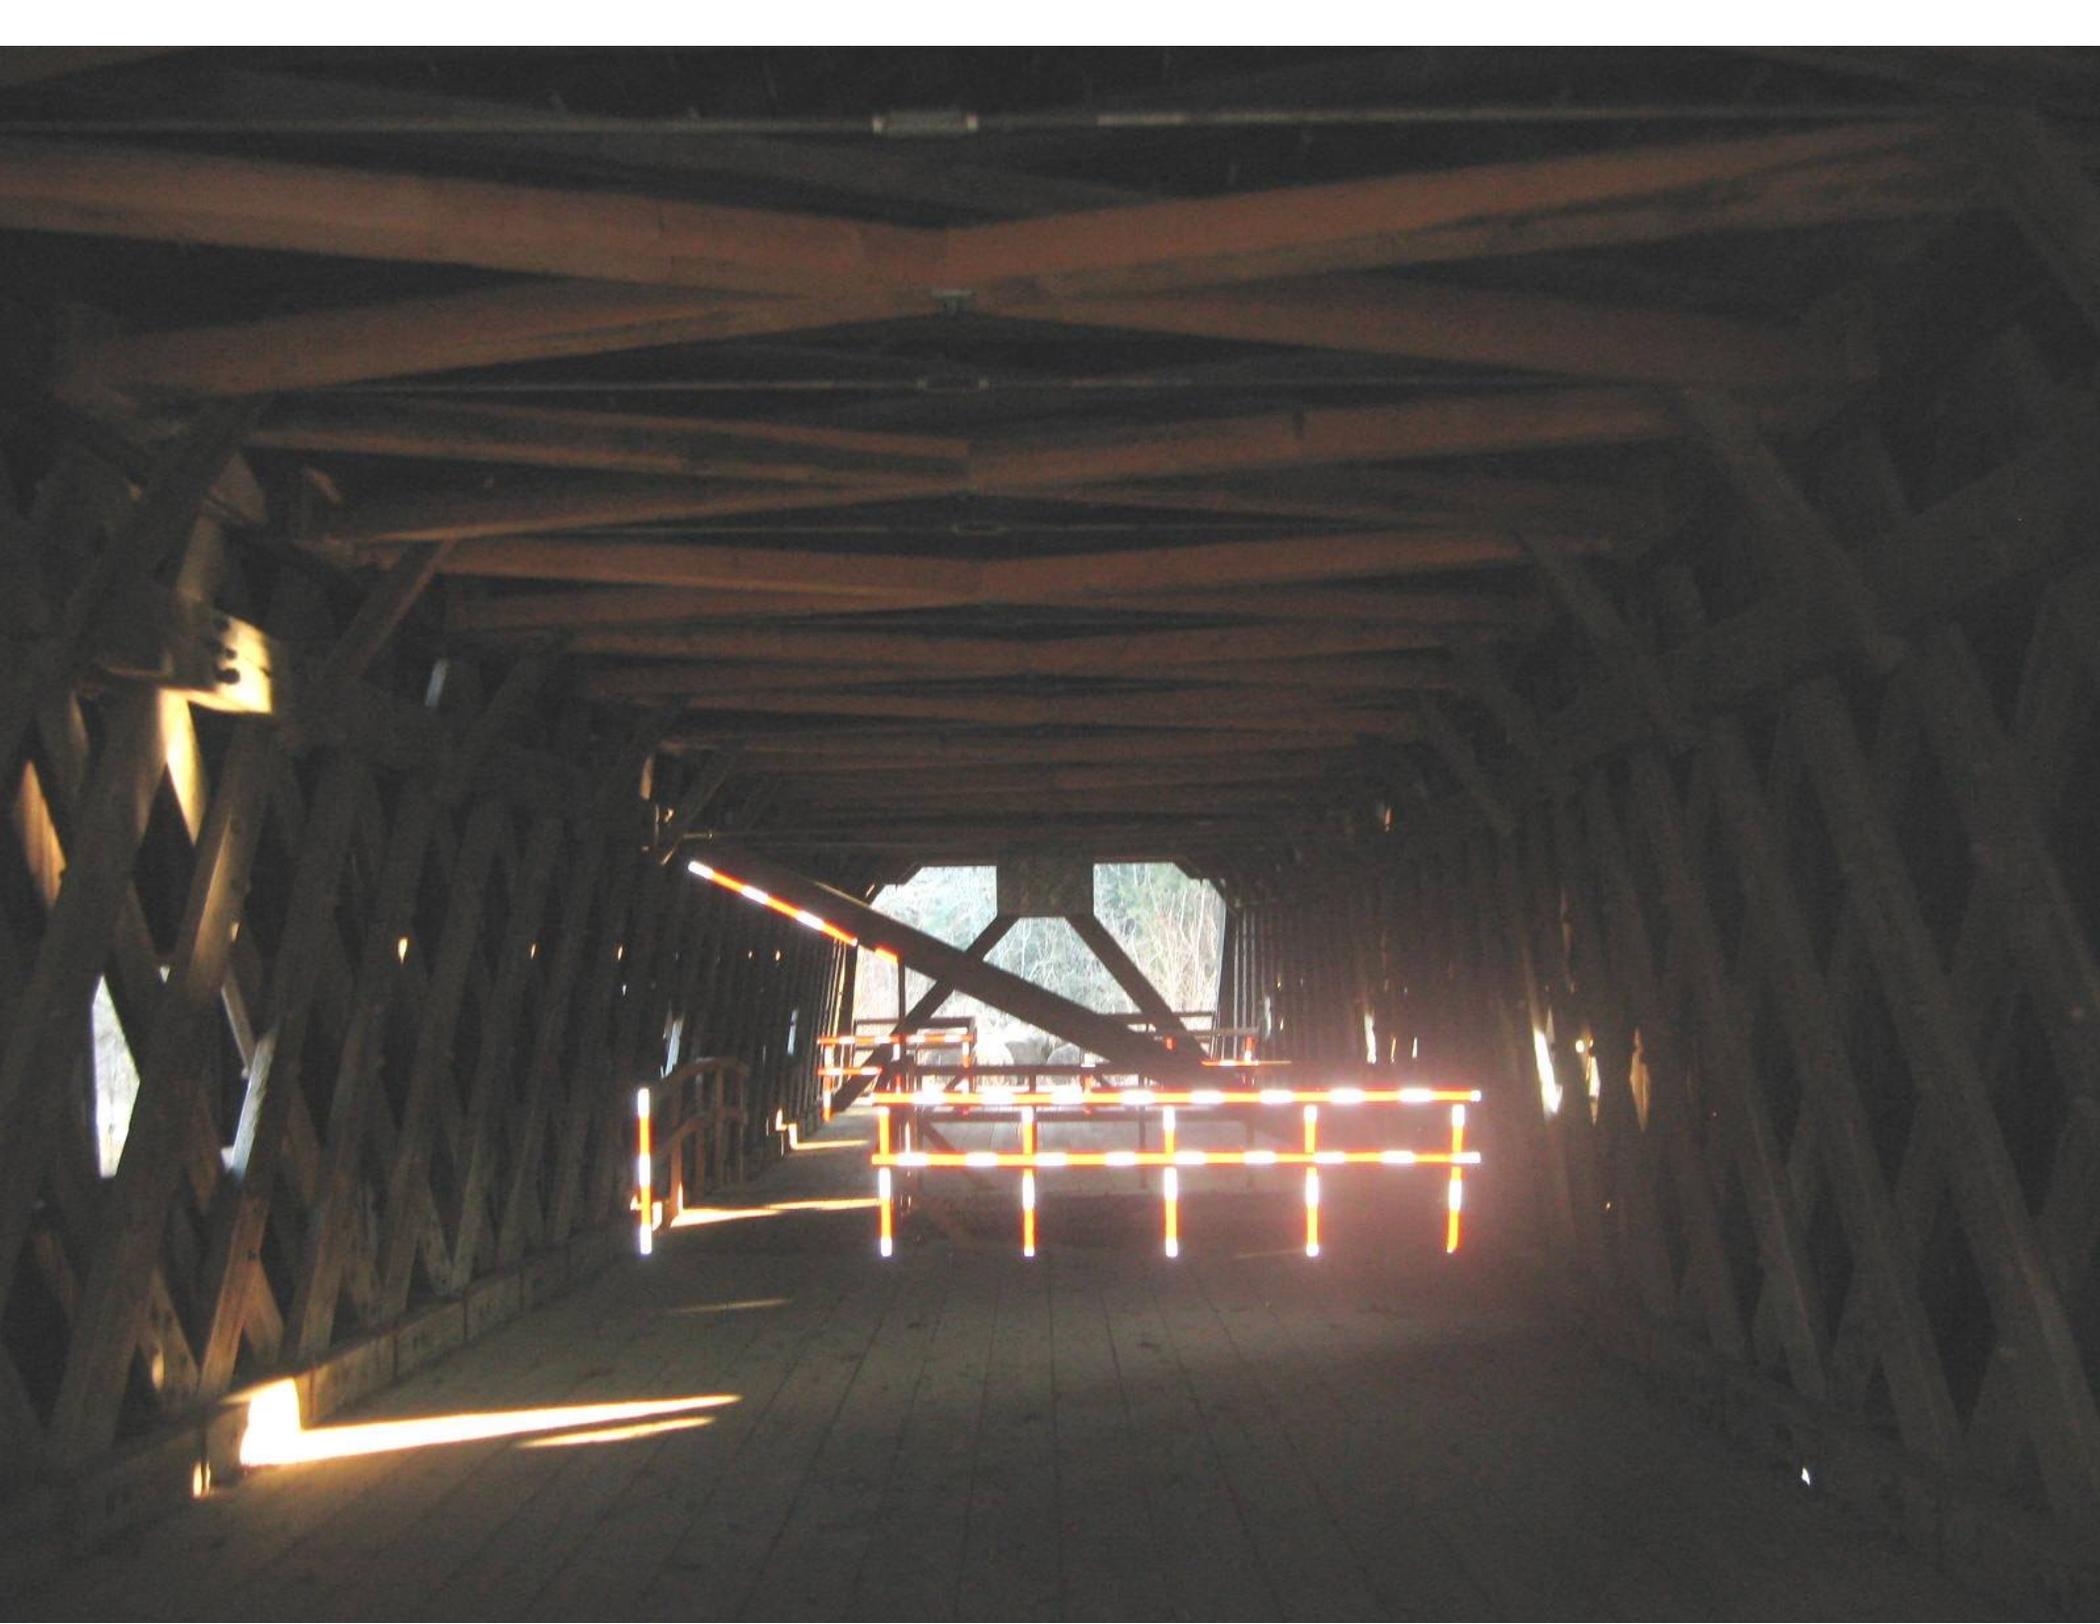

One of four covered
of Pittsford, this
truss bridge was bu Nourse. During t
bridge floated off
ended up in a field
stream. During th
the town returned former

HAMMOND COVERED BRIDGE

One of four covered bridges in the town of Pittsford, this 139' Town lattice truss bridge was built in 1842 by Asa Nourse. During the 1927 flood the bridge floated off its abutments and ended up in a field over a mile down stream. During the winter of 1927-28 the town returned the bridge to its former location.

VERMONT DIVISION FOR HISTORICAL PRESERVATION

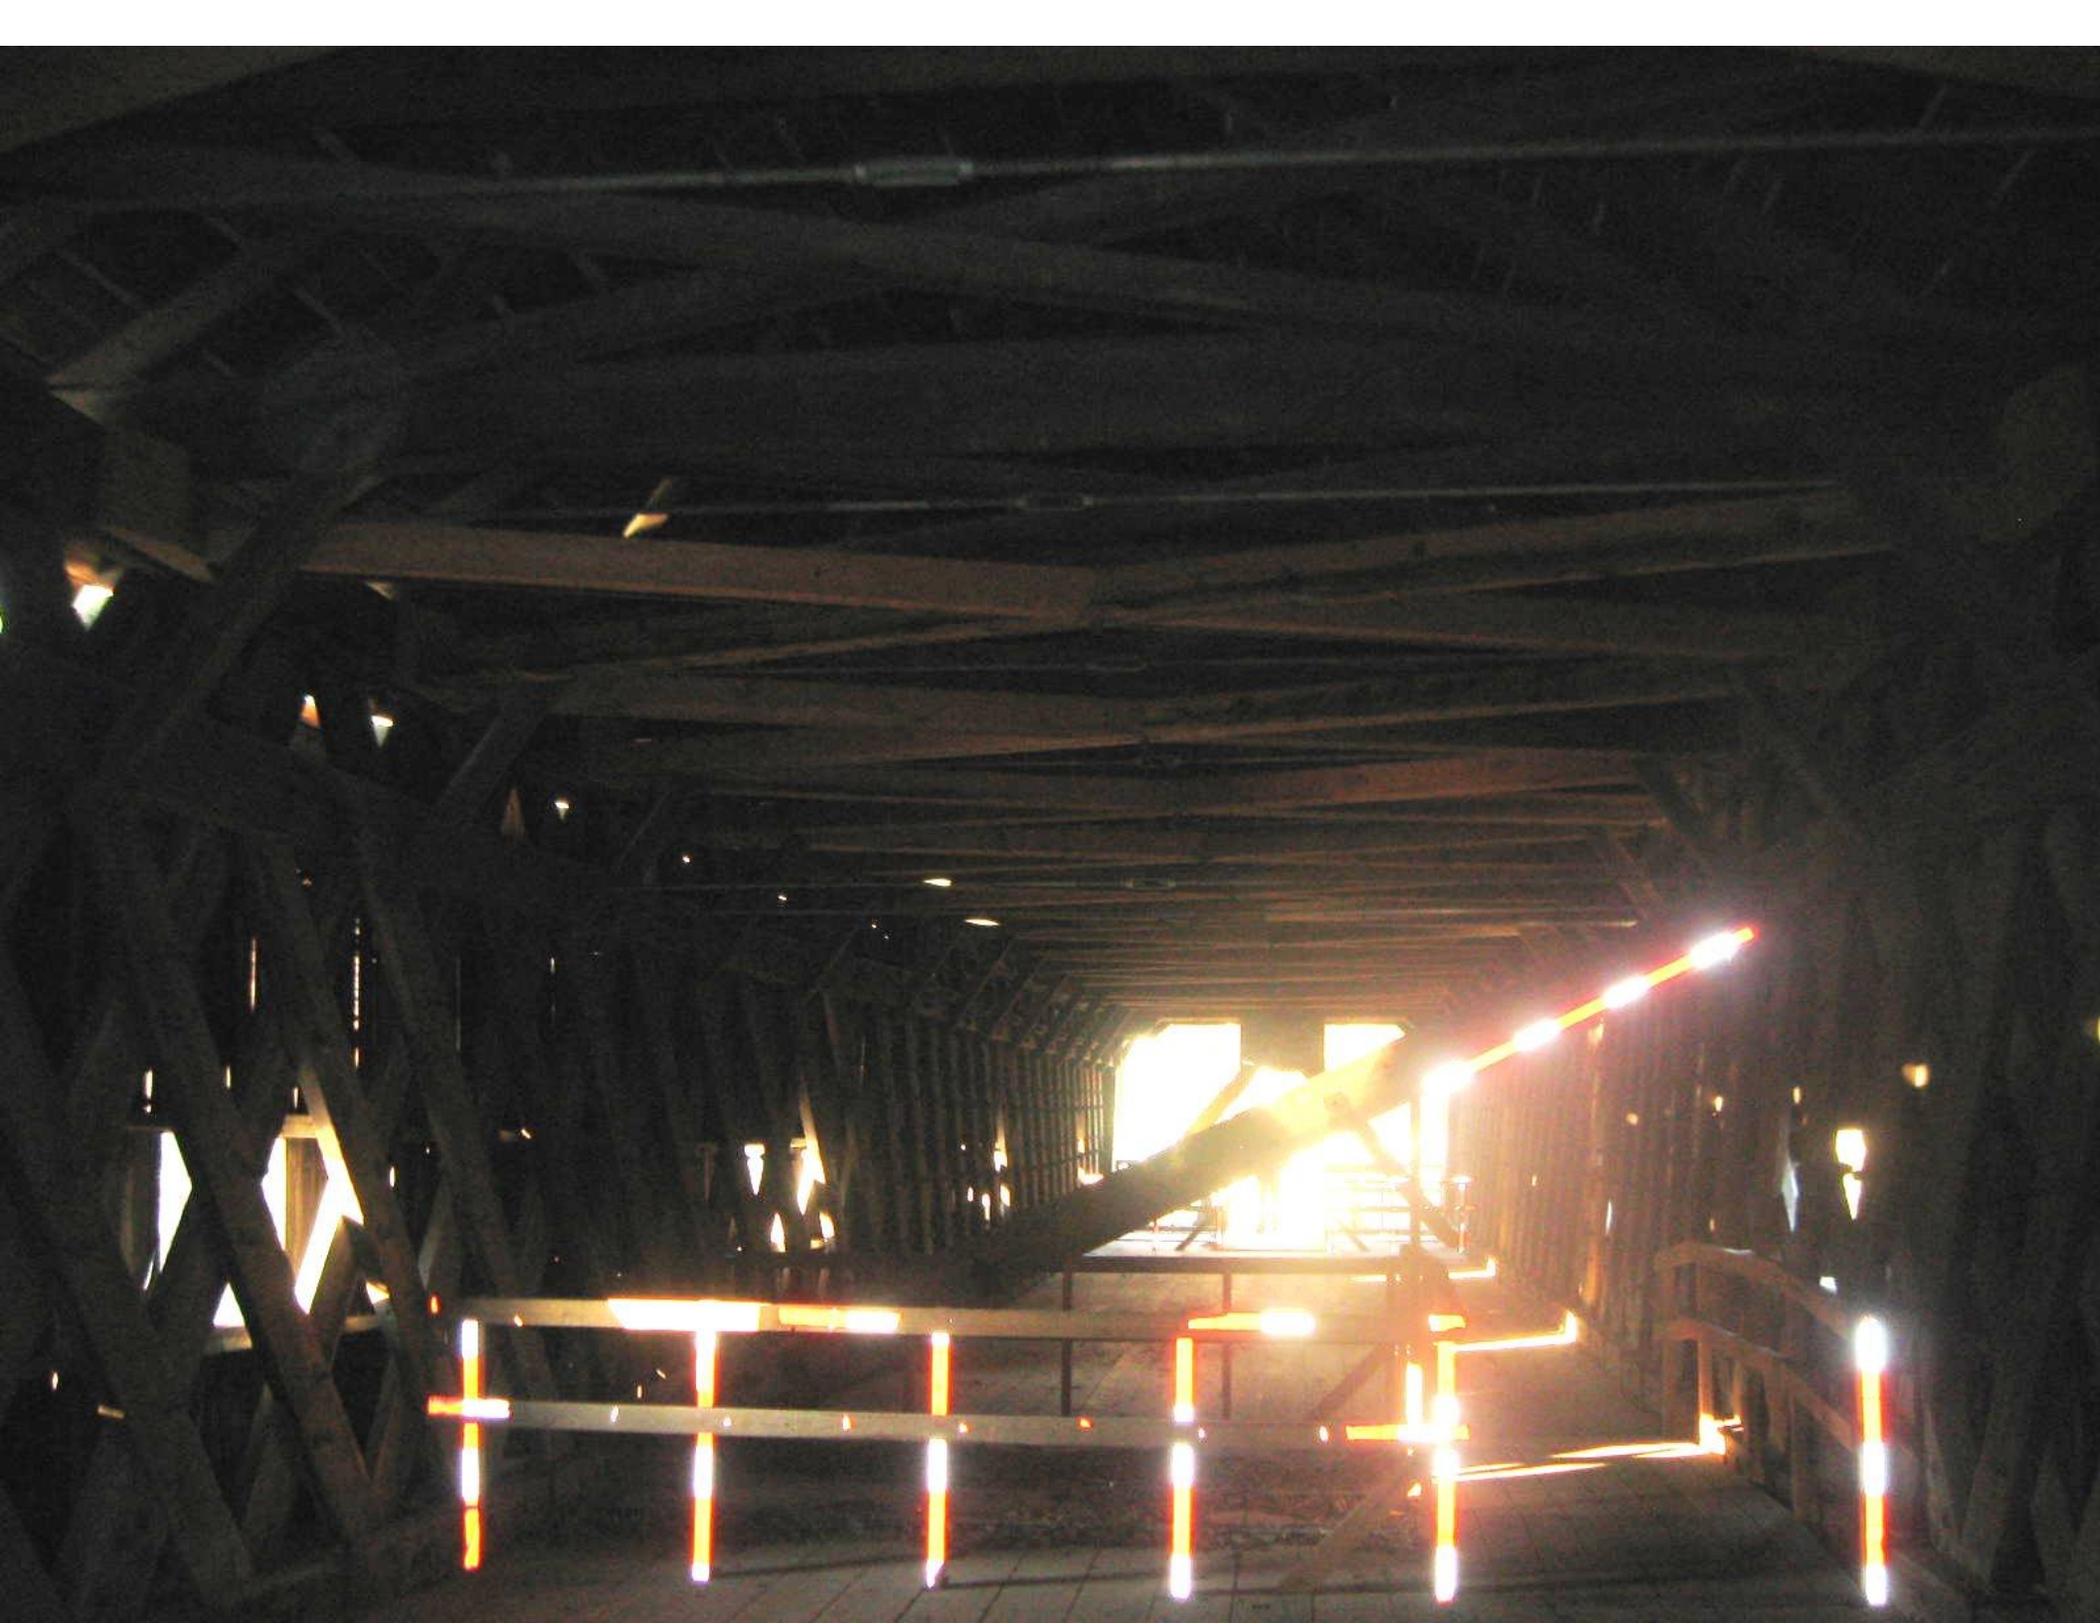

CLEARANCE
11-9

CLEARANCE

11'-9"

