

A photograph of a road intersection. A large pothole is visible in the center of the frame, where a vertical road line and a horizontal road line intersect. The pothole is filled with dark material, possibly asphalt or gravel. The road surface is dark asphalt. A yellow double line runs horizontally across the middle of the image. A white line runs horizontally across the bottom of the image. In the background, there is a metal guardrail, some trees, and a house with a white garage door. A black car is parked in front of the house, and a red car is partially visible on the right. The date "10/27/2020" is printed in orange text at the bottom right of the image.
