

A photograph of a concrete walkway next to a metal railing. The walkway has a large, irregular hole in the center, exposing a layer of gravel or aggregate underneath. A smaller, similar hole is visible further up the walkway. The railing is made of metal pipes with vertical balusters. The date '09/22/2020' is printed in orange text at the bottom right of the image.

09/22/2020