

WATER WHEEL
The water wheel is a large wooden structure used for generating power. It is located in the center of the image, under a wooden shelter. The wheel is made of wood and has a large, curved frame. It is surrounded by a wooden fence. The shelter is made of wood and has a roof made of wooden planks. The background shows green trees.

09/18/2019 10:54