

A photograph taken from underneath a concrete bridge or overpass. The image shows a series of parallel concrete beams supported by a central pier. The concrete appears weathered and grey. The lighting is dim, with some light coming from the sides, creating shadows. At the bottom of the frame, there is a date stamp in orange text. The background shows some greenery and a utility pole.

10/02/2020