

A photograph of a green-painted steel bridge girder. A red-painted circular mark is visible on the left side of the girder. Handwritten text in white paint is located to the right of the red mark. The girder is part of a larger bridge structure, with other girders and a truss system visible in the background. The background shows a hilly landscape under a bright sky.

P.P. 1
Span 3
U.S.