

A photograph of a concrete bridge railing. The railing consists of a horizontal top rail and vertical posts. The post in the foreground has a dark metal plaque mounted on it. The concrete shows signs of age, including cracks and staining. The background is a green lawn and some foliage.

BUILT 1942
SELECTED BY
M. D. BUBENS
ROBERT GRAF
C. L. SHELLON