

SHELDON, VERMONT
SITE OF CORN WAREHOUSE
In 1850, the Sheldon Corn Warehouse was built on the site of the old Sheldon Corn Warehouse. The warehouse was used to store corn for the local farmers. The warehouse was built by the Sheldon family and was used until the 1920s. The warehouse was destroyed by a fire in 1920. The site of the warehouse is now a parking lot for the Sheldon Corn Warehouse. The warehouse was built on the site of the old Sheldon Corn Warehouse. The warehouse was used to store corn for the local farmers. The warehouse was built by the Sheldon family and was used until the 1920s. The warehouse was destroyed by a fire in 1920. The site of the warehouse is now a parking lot for the Sheldon Corn Warehouse.