

A photograph showing a close-up of a wooden beam, likely part of a bridge or industrial structure. The beam is made of weathered wood and has a metal strap or cable wrapped around it. A small hole or notch is visible in the wood. The background shows other wooden beams and structural elements. A date stamp is visible in the bottom right corner.

07/24/2020