HISTORIC PLACES*

Bennington

The Bennington Battle Monument, Vt. 9, in village. Built in 1891 in commemoration of the attack launched from there by General John Stark of the American Colonial Army against troops of General Burgoyne during the Revolutionary War. The battle, which took place on August 16, 1777, was fought south of Bennington in what is now New York State. The monument, a 306 ft. stone monolith, is open to the public daily, March 20–Dec. 1. Admission. State owned.

Burlington

General Ethan Allen Burial Place, Colchester Avenue. The mortal remains of Vermont's noted statesman, philosopher, writer, and soldier lie in this cemetery beneath the marble statue. Born 1738 — Died 1789. Battery Park, in city. Scene of abortive British naval attack on American fortifications during War of 1812. Attack took place August 3, 1813.

East Hubbardton

The Hubbardton Battlefield and Museum, 7 miles off U.S. 4. New Visitors Reception Center and Museum building under construction. Exhibits and audio-visual programs will depict the only battle fought on Vermont soil during the American Revolution, July 7, 1777. Open late May-mid Oct. State owned.

Fairfield

President Chester A. Arthur Birthplace, off Vt. 36 or 108. The house, a reproduction of the original, was dedicated in 1954 by the Vermont Board of Historic Sites. A 35-acre park and panoramic views of the surrounding countryside make it one of the most scenic spots in this part of Vermont. Open June to September inclusive. State owned. Admission.

Grand Isle

The Hyde Log Cabin, U. S. 2. Built in 1783, this structure is considered the oldest log cabin in the U. S. still standing in its original condition. Open July 4–Labor Day, daily, 10:30–5. Donations. State owned.

Isle La Motte

Shrine of Ste. Anne, on West Shore Rd. Roman Catholic shrine now occupies site of Vermont's first white settlement, Fort Ste. Anne, built in 1666. Jesuit priests erected first chapel and celebrated first Mass here.

Killington

In 1763 on the summit of Mt. Killington, Rev. Samuel Peters claimed he christened the Wilderness with the name "Verd-mont." Most historians give credit to Dr. Thomas Young's letter "to the inhabitants of Vermont," sent to Windsor in 1777.

Montpelier

State House, on State Street. Present structure dedicated in 1859. It is noted for its beautiful Doric exterior, massive granite columns and Corinthian interior. The 14 carat gold leaf dome with the statue of "Ceres", Greek goddess of agriculture atop, can be seen by visitors entering the Capital from all directions. Open year 'round: July 1–Labor Day, seven days a week; after Labor Day–June 30, Mon.–Fri. State owned.

Plymouth Notch

President Coolidge Homestead. It was here that Vice-President Calvin Coolidge was administered the oath of office of President of the United States by his father — a Vermont Notary Public — in the early hours of the morning of Aug. 3, 1923. Open late May to mid-October, weekdays and Sundays. Admission. Homestead is a registered National Historic Landmark. State owned.

Royalton

Joseph Smith Monument, Vt. 14, east of village. Monument marks the birthplace of the great Mormon prophet and leader, born December 23, 1805. The polished granite shaft, standing 38½ feet tall, is considered the world's largest.

Springfield

The Eureka Schoolhouse, located on U. S. Route 11, between Springfield and Exit 7 of Interstate 91. Built in 1785, it is the oldest schoolhouse in Vermont and was in continuous use from its construction to 1900. Restored in 1968, it is open to the public from late May to mid-October. State owned.

Strafford

Justin Smith Morrill Homestead, south of common in village. Historic home of U.S. Senator Morrill, father of Acts establishing Land Grant Colleges. House constructed 1848-51. Registered National Historic Landmark. Open June 15-September 15, daily except Mon., 1-4 p.m. State owned.

Townshend

The Scott Covered Bridge over the West River, Vt. 30. The longest single span bridge of its type in the state. Built in 1870. Length, 165.7 ft. State owned.

Whitingham

Brigham Young Birthplace, Vt. 8, in village. Granite monument, 14 ft. high, marks birthplace of famous Mormon leader, June 1, 1801. Led Mormons from Illinois to Utah, founded Salt Lake City, 1847.

Windsor

Old Constitution House, U. S. 5, in the town. "The Birthplace of Vermont." In this former tavern, on July 8, 1777, representatives of the New Hampshire Grants adopted the first Constitution of the "Free and Independent Republic of Vermont." Open daily, June to mid-October. Donations. State owned.

Wolcott

The Wolcott Covered Railroad Bridge, located on U. S. Route 15, approximately two miles east of Wolcott Village. This bridge is the last railroad covered bridge still in regular use in Vermont and one of a very few left in the United States.

The most exciting thing about a visit or a vacation in Vermont is the thrill of discovery, from moment to moment, at every bend of every highway and byway.

Vermont appeals to visitors for many of the same reasons that it does to people who come here to live. The state's breathtaking natural beauty, easy-going atmosphere, the congeniality of its people and the limitless opportunities for recreation and relaxation appeal equally to vacationer and Vermonter alike.

Here is a land of majestic mountain ranges and deep river valleys, quiet lakes and rushing mountain streams. Here is a land rich in contrast, where the new and the old, the modern and the traditional can be found side by side in a comfortable blending that appeals to people of all ages.

Another wonderful thing about Vermont is that it's so accessible. Modern highway systems have brought its borders within easy reach of anyone traveling by car. Once here, the State highway system, including such four-lane arteries as Interstates 89 and 91, moves traffic effortlessly from one end of Vermont to the other.

By contrast, Vermont's excellent network of well maintained secondary roads and back-country byways allows the unhurried traveler to explore the quiet countryside at his own pace, in his own way.

East Corinth, Hans Wendler

When is the best time to come to Vermont? Here again, the exciting contrast that is Vermont manifests itself in the beauty of the changing seasons, making the choice a challenging one. Each of the four seasons offers something uniquely different for the individual taste.

Spring comes gently but persistently to Vermont. Nature, impatient with the long winter, paints the mountains and valleys with subtle green pastels in striking contrast to the deep, verdant tones of the perennials. The countryside is reborn and rejuvenated in a few short weeks making the thrill of discovering Vermont at this time of year a unique experience.

A Vermont summer is a time of limitless activity or quiet relaxation and the choice is everyone's to make. During this time of year, the greatest number of people with the widest range of interests discover or rediscover Vermont for the many enjoyable pastimes it has to offer. The State's great forest areas, lofty mountains, meandering river valleys, hundreds of lakes and mountain streams offer unbounded opportunities for family enjoyment.

Autumn in Vermont bursts on the scene in a brilliant tone poem of color that has made it world famous. The vivid reds, golds, and oranges of maple and birch contrasted with the deep, rich tones of the evergreens combine to create a color panorama to dazzle the eye and challenge the camera's lens and the artist's brush. The curtain rises on Vermont's color spectacular about the middle of September and closes with a flourish in mid-October.

Winter transforms Vermont into a spectacular playground for the snowtime, winter sports vacationer. The state's formidable ski slopes, perenially great snowfall and the widest range of excellent facilities in the entire United States attract skiers of all abilities — beginner to expert — from throughout the world. Both skiers and non-skiers alike are enchanted by the breathtaking beauty of Vermont's snowscapes and the old-time, Christmas card charm of the towns and villages.

These are a few of the things which attract travelers to Vermont . . . but only a very few. Whatever the season . . . whatever the reason . . . a genuinely warm welcome awaits each visitor in Vermont.
